Mc-Cormick refused to withdraw, but after seeing that it was a case of come off or getipulied off, decided to withdraw. The Republicans will make large gains on national, State and county tickets this fall.

Brookville Ready for Business.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BROOKVILLE, Ind., Sept. 9 .- The Republicans of Brookville and Brookville township have secured a fine suite of rooms and opened headquarters for the campaign. In these rooms the Republicans met last night and organized a Harrison and Reid club with a large membership. The following officers were elected: President, Edgar O'Hair; secretary, F. M. Smith; treasurer, John C. Shirk. Meetings will be held every week on Thursday night. The rooms will be open all the time, where the best Republican literature of the day can be found and visitors from everywhere are invited.

Knows What He's Talking About. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MARSHALL, Ill., Sept. 9 .- The Republicans had a grand meeting here, last night, which was addressed by James B. Nelson, of Greencastle, Ind., who spoke for an hour and a haif. Mr. Nelson is connected with a firm which furnishes the black sheets for the Elwood tin-plate-works, and he has thoroughly posted himself on the details of the manufacture of tin, hence he can speak with absolute truth and authority on the subject. Mr. Nelson's campaign work in the county will be productive of immense good.

Old Soldiers Good and Active.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HUNTINGTON, Ind., Sept. 9.-The soldiers of Huntington county held a big reunion and camp-fire yesterday and last night. It was very largely attended. Department Commander Cheadle spoke in the afternoon and evening, his remarks being received with great favor. Gov. Chase was driven over from Warren, where he spoke upon the fair grounds during the day, and also spoke at the camp-tire. Comrade Daly of Peru, Republican candidate for Congress, also made brief remarks.

A Badly Scared Lot.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., Sept. 9.-There are Republican organizations in Miami county now at Converse, Macy, Chili, Perrysburg, Mexico, Miami, Peoria, Pettysville, Gilead and Denver. Meetings have been held at every one of these places within the week. County issues are dangerous for the Democratic party here to harp on, and the fact of their terrible mismanagement being so apparent makes them only the more anxious to say nothing whatever concerning them. They are Everybody Going to Elwood. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Sept. 9.-At a meeting of the Harrison and Reid Club last evening it was decided to attend the Elwood meeting in a body, more than two hundred strong, headed by the famous K. of P. Band. The uniform adopted by the club will be the white plug hat and flag-cane The railroads at this place are making arrangements to accommodate at least one thousand people who will attend the meeting from this part of the country.

TAMMANY FOR GROVER.

Bourke Cockran Forgets His Chicago Speech

and Comes Out for Cleveland. NEW YORK, Sept. 9.— Fammany Hallcame out boldly to-night for Cleveland and Stevenson. A meeting of the general committee had been called together to issue a call for the primaries of the districts. Ex-Judge Nelson Smith presided, well-known politicians tilled the boxes and the hall was crowded. The chairman made a brief address eulogistic of the Democratic presidential and vice-presidential candidates, and at each mention of Cleveland's name the hall shook with the cheers.

Senator Bourke Cockran, in one of his characteristic speeches, then presented resolutions indorsing the declaration of principles adopted by the Democratic national convention at Chicago; condemning "as tending to subvert our constitutional system the Republican policy of establishing federal control of elections throughout the country, whether that control be exercised by partisan boards, such as the Republicans contemplated when in power, or by non-partisan boards such as the President, under a stress of political conditions, declares that he is now ready to accept." The resolutions invite comparison "between the records of the Republican administration and the record of the Democratic, which preceded it. By the results of that comparison we are willing that the merits of the two parties should be dedecided, believing as we do, that the security of the government, the prosperity of commerce, and the happiness of the people can best be maintained by the success of the Democratic party. We do cordially pledge our united efforts to the election of Grover Cleveland to the presidency and of Adlai E. Stevenson to the vice-presidency of the United States."

GROVER FIXED THINGS.

Before He Left New York Yesterday He Said His Purpose Had Been Accomplished.

NEW YORK, Sept, 9 .- Ex-President Cleveland left this city for Buzzard's Bay, on the Fall River boat Puritan, at 7:20 o'clock this evening. He retired to his stateroom, after a brief consultation with Hon. W. C. Whitney, who had accompanied him at once, broke open the safe, but it was from the hotel. Mr. Whitney called at the hotel about a half hour before the departure, and went up to see Mr. Cleveland. Before doing so, he gave a hopeful view of the prospects in an interview. He said that, within the past forty-eight hours, he had gone over the reports from all of the sixty counties of this State with Lieutenantgovernor Sheehan, and everything looked very favorable.

A few words were bad with Mr. Cleveand as he made his exit from the botel, He was asked if he had accomplished the purpose for which be came to this city. "Yes, yes, most certainly." he replied, very cordially and heartily. "I simply same here for the purpose of meeting a doubtedly Go Republican. AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 9 .- Joseph H. Manley, chairman of the Republican State committee, gives to the press to-day a statement, in which he says the returns from every section of the State, giving the detailed canvass, are very complete and full of promise. Reviewing the total vote for a quarter of a century, he says that, in 1884, when the standard-bearer of the party "was our own distinguished citizen and statesman, we had an absolute majority of 13,000, but in both these years the Democratic party practically abandoned the fight in the last

Chairman Manley Says the State Will Un

They have ignored the national contest and appealed to petty selfish and local issues. We vote for the first time under the Australian ballot law, which applies to every city, town and plantation, and the effect will be to reduce the total vote cast, thus reducing the Republican majority. But there no doubt as to the result. The Republicans are assured of a substantial victory. We shall elect our Governor, four Representatives to Congress, a large majority of both branches of the Legislature, securing the re-election of a United States Senator, and the county ticket in nearly every county in the State. NEW YORK, Sept. 9 .- The Democratic campaign committee on literature this afternoon decided to investigate the recent report of Labor Commissioner Peck, in view of the fact that President Harrison made use of it in his letter of acceptance. Chairman Quincy, of the committee, sent this letter to Commissioner Peck:

"In conformity with your offer, as reported in the press, to submit the methods and data employed by yourself in the preparation of your report upon the subject of the effect of the tariff on labor and wages, of which a summary has recently been made public to the examination of committees representing the different political parties. I now ask you, on behalf of the Democratic national committee, to disclose these methods as fully as possible to Messrs, Schoen-hoff, E. Ellery Anderson and Edward F. Mc-Sweeney, who are authorized by us to examine this matter and report upon it to us. Mr. Anderson is authorized to institute legal proceedings by the way of mandamus to compel the production of the returns in Mr. Peck's possession, and such proceedings are already on foot."

All the Cabinet Officers Will Speak. NEW YORK, Sept. 9.-The announcement was made at Republican headquarters to-day that each member of President Harrison's Cabinet would deliver four or five speeches during the campaign. William Hahn concluded his arrangements with each and all of the Cabinet members for the campaign this afternoon, and immediately afterwards left for Mansfield, O., his home, where he will spend several days of next week, returning Thursday. Before going "The report that President Harrison will be in New York shortly and will address a meeting in Madison-square Garden is erroneous. No plan of that kind has been thought of."

W. D. Owen Will Stump Indiana.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 .- Ex-Congressman Will iam D. Owen, of Logansport, now Superintendent of Immigration, will make a number of speeches in Indiana next month. He will be zir at Kentland on Oct. 12, and intends to speak every day till the election. Mr. Owen is eloquent, and one of the most convincing tariff de-baters in the country. Mrs. Owen is now at her old home in Iowa.

Political Notes. Adlai E. Stevenson will deliver an address a Huntington, W. Va., during the campaign. Hon. Whitelaw Reid will be one of the speakers at the Ohio Republican League meeting, at oodsdale Park, to-morrow. Another Santa Fe Train Held Up in Indian Territory-Two Baskets of Grapes Stolen. GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 9.—The south-bound passenger train on the Santa Fe was held up late last night by train robbers at Wharton, in the Cherokee Strip, la station twenty miles north of this city. The robbers had their horses hitched near the depot, and after attempting to rob the train, remained for some time. Wharton is a little unprotected station in the Cherokee Strip where a telegraph operator was killed two years ago. This is the third time trains have been held up there. When the train ar-

in the west side of the express car.

Engineer Spoonangher gives this account of the hold-up: "The train arrived at Wharton on time. Three men mounted the engine and ordered fireman Ross and myself to step down. Then they compelled Ross to accompany them to the express door and told him to batter it down. When the first blow was struck on the door the express messenger fired through 1t. The fireman stepped back, but the men with cocked Winchesters, again comsake, boys, don't shoot, they are making me do it,' yelled the fireman to the messenger. and again his blows fell on the door. It was soon smashed and the robbers entered empty. The express men had opened it while the door was being broken in and bid most of the contents. Failing to find booty there the robbers turned to the larger safe, but found it impossible to open. Then they backed out and left, taking with them two baskets of grapes as trophies of the raid. No effort was made to rob the passengers. One of the robbers was stationed at the rear of the car and shot whenever a head appeared at the window. Many shots were fired both by those around the express car and by the guard at the rear of the train."

Bound, Gagged and Robbed.

Uniontown, Pa., Sept. 9.-Six masked men entered the residence of John Walters, a farmer seventy years old, living near Masontown, last night, and, after binding and gagging the old couple, forced them at the muzzle of a revolver and by threats of torture to disclose the hiding place of their money. The robbers secured $143. It is thought the outrage was committed by members of the Cooley gang.

A Lone Bandit's Work.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 9 .- Notwithstanding the efforts of the Pacific Express Company's officers to suppress everything in reference to the robbery Wednesday night, it is learned that the lone bandit secured a package containing $5,000 in bills, two bags of silver containing from $1,000 to $1,500 each, and a small amount of jewelry of unknown value. Express messenger McNaughton is being shadowed.

Murder and Robbery.

DURANGO, Sept. 9 .- Celas Martes, the agent of the State Bank of this city, who was on his way to Mazatlan with $10,000 in gold coin, accompanied by five guards, was shot down in the Sierra Madra mountains and the gold carried off. One guard escaped alive and told the story.

Poet Whittier's Funeral, AMESBURY, Mass., Sept. 9 .- Arrangements for the funeral, to-morrow, of the late John G. Whittier have been completed. Mr. Whittier left a will containing a number of bequests to charitable institutions, as well as to relatives and friends. The clause which refers to his funeral is as follows: "It is my wish that my funeral may be confucted in the plain and quiet way of the Society of Friends, with which I am connected, not only by birthright, but also by a firm conviction of the truth of its principles and importance of its

They have, since the election of 1880, been pointing the Binghamton Trust Company State receiver to take charge of the Iron Hali funds This annuls the recent New York city appointment. Bonds in the sum of $400,000 must be given, as the company will handle about $250,-000 belonging to the order.

THE PRESIDENT AT SARANAC

Short Address to the Villagers on the Responsibility of Citizenship.

How Each Person Can Contribute to the Peace. Happiness and Glory of the Nation-Action Regarding Sandy Hook.

LOON LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 9 .- The President was busy to-day. He got up for a 7o'clock breakfast and started a few minutes after 8 o'clock with Mr. W. D. Phillips for Saranac, which was reached by 11 presented the issues of the day with zeal | o'clock after a most delightful drive in the bracing air of a beautiful morning. The President was driven to the Ampersald Hotel, where he was met by a committee of the villagers of Saranac. He was then driven about the environs of the town until 12 o'clock, when the people assembled in the village square. The President was introduced by Dr. Trudeau and made the following brief address:

My Fellow-Citizens-I like to think that we have here in America everything that any other country in the old world has, and some things in excess. Where, in other lands, shall be found a healthier, and where shall be found a balmier air than here in the Adirondacks; where, skies and scenery more calculated to lift the drooping spirits of the invalid, to make one's veins tingle with health, and to lift one's heart to God? I thank you most sincerely for this friendly emonstration.

I will not attempt to discuss public questions, or to say more than that we cannot escape responsibility as American citizens, and it is well worth the while of each of us to think what contribution we can make to the peace and happiness of our neighborhood, and to the glory of the great Nation of which we are citizens. [Applause.] It is not possible for all of us to make a sacrifice that shall be conspicuous, to play some great part upon some great stage while the rest of men look on, but it is possible for every one to make a substantial contribution to the happiness, the peace and the orderliness of the community in which he lives [applause]; and out of this contribution, out of these neighborly neighborhoods, our Nation is made. Just as from these running springs the river gathers its fuller flow, so from these little daily contributions this great American society comes, with its homes, its schools and churches, and, crowning III. the free government of a free to return to all of you, again, my thanks, and will follow any programme your committee has arranged for personal presentation. The start back was made at a few minutes before 4 o'clook, Loon lake being reached at 6:30, the President himself driving the four-in-hand the latter half of the trip. The people of Saranac did all honor to the President, the village being handsomely decorated, and every inhabitant that could uniting in the demonstration in the square. All along the route the farm houses were trimmed with flage, and, at the little village of Bloomingdale, where horses were changed, a band welcomed the President, who descended from the brake and shook hands with the

Before leaving this morning the President was advised that it was desirable to use a portion of the Sandy Hook reservation as a camp for detained passengers, but that the War Department hesitated in granting permission. He sent a dispatch to the Acting Secretary of War, saying that, while he was not fully advised as to the particulars, he was anxious to do all in his power for the comfort and safety of the people, and later, upon the receipt of telegrams from the secretaries of the Treasury and Navy, who are in New York, he sent the following to the Acting Secretary of

The President advised the Secretary of the Treasury of this action, and, at the same time, cautioned him as to the difficulty of maintaining a proper quarantine if such a camp is established, and also of possible embarrassment that might arise from the removal of the passengers out of the jurisdiction of New York officers. Both of these questions must be left to the judgment of the officers on the ground, and who know the situation. He also directed that notice be given all steamship companies that if they persisted in bringing emigrants from infected ports that it might result in their being denied entrance to our barbors.

RUINED BY SPECULATION.

Failure of English Building Societies, wit Liabilities of Six Million Pounds.

LONDON, Sept. 9.- The failure of the House and Land Investment Trust (limited), announced to-day, is part of a series of gigantic bank and building society suspensions, now involving liabilities approximating £6,000,000. The first failure announced in this series was that of the London and General Bank (limited): the next that of the Liberator Permanent Building and Investment Society, and nov comes the suspension of the House and Land Investment Trust. The nominal capital of each of these concerns does not represent anything approaching the habilities. The money which they owe is chiefly due to depositors and investors, who had been induced to do business with the concerns by the alluring high rate of interest which they offered. The liabilities of the London and General Bank are estimated at £1,000,000; those of the Liberator Society, at £2,500,000, and those of the House and Land Trust at £2,000,000. Another great building and bank society is involved serione financial difficulty, but its suspension has not yet been announced. The collapse of this concern will shake the whole building society system in Great Britain. A run occurred to-day on the oldest and most prominent bank in London, the Associated Workmen's Building Funds. Although the suspensions must affect the general financial position, it is a singular fact that the crisis causes no papic or scare. The limited building bank investors are all small capitalists, whose life savings are swept away or are imperiled by the failure of the concerns to which they have intrusted their money. The losses which led to the suspensions are chiefly traceable to injudicious speculations in land blocks. So far no suspicion of malversation attaches to the directors of any of the ruined companies. although the shareholders charge them with concealing the true position of the institutions. Thus, a shareholder in the House and Land Investment Trust, after repeated applications to be allowed to withdraw his money, to-day got a circular, dated Sept. 3, announcing the trust's sus-

American Tar Murdered in Italy. GENOA, Sept. 9 .- The United States steamer Newark arrived here several days ago to fake part in the Columbus fetes here. Among her crew was a sailor named Frank Reilly. In the course of lourneys about the city he visited a lodging-house, last night, and was killed. The details of the affair have not yet been made publie, but it is said that the murder of Reilly was entirely unprovoked.

Later-It appears that the murdered man was one of the nine sailors from the Newark who had stayed too long ashore and applied for rooms at the Hotel Univers, at 2:30 o'clock in the morning. A heated squabble with the landlord over the price of lodgings ensued, and a waiter employed in the house, believing that his employer was threatened with violence, stabbed Reilly twice, killing him. There are m attendance 495 delegates, representing 1,219,-934 members. The congress rejected a motion to promote a bill in Parliament to prevent the importation of foreign labor during strikes.

Prompt Action in New Jersey. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.- The attention of the Treasury Department was to-day called to a report that a pillow marked "Moravia," and presumed to be a portion of the infected bedding cast away by that vessel on its recent tragic voyage to New York, has been picked up on the Jersey coast opposite the course taken by ocean steamships. Other articles of similar character have been found at other points on the same coast. The matter was first reported to the State authorities and they took prompt action. All the articles were destroyed by fire and orders were given for the immediate establishment of a patrol along the entire coast for the destruction by fire of any article found on the sea-shore that might possibly contain cholera germs. Acting Secretary Spaulding said to-day that in view of this efficient action of the State authorithe government to do in the matter. The crews of life stations will co-operate in these precaution-

For the Guidance of Medical Officers. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 .- The War Department has issued a circular for the information of and guidance of medical officers who may be unfamiliar with the general management and prevention of cholera, and for others who have received no specific instructions from medical directors of the army. "As this disease, by its presence at the New York quarantine, now threatens the whole country, a general object will be gained," the circular states, "if we succeed in preventing it from appearing at our military posts by thorough and effective sanitation and cleanliness." Means for preventing the germs from making their appearance and remedies in case of sickness are given in the circular.

DECREASING AT HAMBURG. Not So Many New Cases or Deaths Yesterday as Reported on Thursday. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAMBURG, Sept. 9.-The weather has been bright, and there has been a cool breeze to-day. The decrease in the number of new cases and deaths continues. To-day there have been 798 fresh cases, or 108 fewer than yesterday. The deaths numbered 246, or fifty-two fewer than yesterday, and there have been 481 burials, or seventeen fewer than yesterday. Cafes which have had hardly ten oustomers a day, doubled their business to day. Newspapers seize the opportunity to tell the truth and reiterate their assurances that the plague probably has been at its worst. In the poorer districts, however, no change is apparent. The lack of employment must continue there for several weeks yet, and to the impoverished working people this means misery, as many are on the verge of starvation. General emigration for the laborers has been suggested as a remedy, but the prejudice throughout Germany against persons from the infected districts would render this impossible. The distress among the unemployed is increased by the revolutionary literature scattered among them by Social Democratic agitators from Berlin and Altoons and the authorities fear that bread riots will break out within the next two weeks. The relief committees have raised 600,000 marks to alleviate the sufferings of the poor. Among the most generous subscribers was Prince Bismarck, who has given 10,000 marks. The committees are not only showing the working people how to fight the cholera but also are distributing food among all who have no money to buy it. Subscrip tions have been requested from all cities in the empire, as the work must be continued for several weeks and the expenditures will be enormous. The schools probably will not be opened before the middle of October, even should the rate of decrease continue. The the- | Hendricks county, this State. A reporter describes the Ohlsdorf Cemetery and the route thither, the latter formerly a holiday resort. He says of this approach: "It is now shunned except by an unending procession of hearses," and adds: "Already six thousand bodies have been buried in the cemetery since the outbreak by two hundred grave-diggers working, at increased wages day and night. The bodies are buried en masse in trenches, broad ones for rough pine coffins and narrow for the painted coffins. Flaring petroleum lights are dotted over the cemetery at night. A great number of corpse-carriers are lodged in huts in the cemetery. Their march from hearse to grave proceeds with slow decorum in the day time, but briskly at night, when there is no religious ceremony of any kind. Generally there is a line of hearses half a mile long waiting."

NO CHOLERA IN ENGLAND.

Stamped Out, According to Official Reports -Talk with Consul-General New.

[Copyright, 1892, by the New York Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 9.—Official reports show that the cholera has been stamped out of the United Kingdom. The Local Government Board officers, the authorities at the chief ports and the greatest populous centers concur in the statement that no cases of real cholera, but only a few choleraic cases, have occurred. Experts say that though the disease was brought to England to a dozen different points, it has been limited to persons arriving from infected

The medical press assumes a triumphant tone at the success of the sanitary arrangements. The Lancet admits, however, that the defensive measures are in two respects defective. The system of keeping people arriving from infected places under inspection for only a few days does not provide for taking care of aliens who do not know where to lay their heads. The fact that Hamburg ships replepished their water from the cholera-polluted Elbe was overlooked. Still, the results prove, the Lancet says, that the English inspection is superior to the ordinary quarantine regu-lations. It is not infallible, however. Disease may filter through the meshes of sanitary administration, but, given general cleanliness and attention to sanitation, no quarantine is necessary to repel an inroad of cholers. The tone of the Lancet scenrately represents the feeling of the country. The Local Government Board keeps vigilant. It has sent to the provinces a staff of traveling inspectors to arrange everywhere for the treatment of patients. In have been stricken with cholera and two have died.

Mr. John C. New, the American consulgeneral here, told the representative of the Associated Press that there was no reason to suppose that the steamship companies were trying to evade the regulations laid down in President Harrison's circular. He had consular reports of the vessels sailing, and he found the cessation of steerage traffic general. Where instances occurred like the Maranthon, the steamer dispatched by the Connard Company to carry emigrants, he was duly apprised, and warned agents of the companies to take the necessary precautions against infected passengers or baggage. He knew of no instance since the circular came into operation where a ship carried carried both saloon passengers and emigrants. The saloon passengers now embarked sailed on the definite assurance that the vessels did not carry emigrants. Referring to the question discussed in London daily—that is, if the assurance is broken and cabin passengers are detained in quarantine or otherwise suffer, have they a claim for damages against the steamship companies-Mr. New said he was decidedly of the opinion that they could so claim.

Sir Edwin Arnold's Preventive.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 .- Sir Edwin Arnold, arrived in New York late yesterday afternoon, after a six weeks' sojourn in Japan "I see," said Sir Edwin, "that I have been misquoted about Mr. Blaine. What I did say was that it was unstatesmanlike in him to suggest, and unworthy of a great nation, to close this country's ports against those of the world, on account of the prevalence of cholera abroad. I do not believe in your quarantine. You cannot keep cholera out with a quarantine. If it is to come it will come anyhow. Our plan-to isolate the sick and let the well go-is much better; besides, I think the American and English constitution rather impervious to choiera. More perhaps die of measles, diphtheria or teething than die of cholera. No well or prudent man should fear the disease. Just go about as usual and don't think of it. Why I have seen so much of it and been so close to it that I have not the slightest fear of it. I'll teil you my own preventive, which I have used in India with the very best results. The cholera bacillus does not like acid. He can't stand it at all. So every other morning, when the cholera actually appears, I would take if I were you, five drops of hydrocholoric acid in a cup of tea. You will find it excellent as a preventive, if you are also careful in your babits of life. No, I don't believe in your quarantine,"

Notes of the Pest. Spain has declared quarantine against vessels arriving from London. The deaths from cholers at Teheran now average 21 daily, against 200 a week ago. The presence of cholera in Hamburg has frightened many seamen to such an extent that some of them refuse to ship on vessels bound for that port or intending to call there.

Railway agents at Quebec have received intructions not to issue or exchange tickets for points in the United States to immigrants, on account of the twenty days' quarantine. Sixty-three new cases of cholera and forty-nine deaths were reported in Paris Thursday. The same day twenty-two new cases and thirteen deaths were reported in the suburbs. Two cases of Asiatic cholera are reported at Kralingen, three miles from Rotterdam. Both of the patients were employed in unloading ships from Hamburg and Russia. One of them has already succumbed to the scourge. Professor Virchow announced at Berlin yesterday that Director Merke, of the Moabit Hospital, had constructed a boiling apparatus, designed to be used to destroy cholera germs in patients' excreta, and that it was hoped to free the hospital wards from bacilli. A person calling himself George S. Weaver, and claiming to have been a passenger on the Normannia, told a "fishy" story at Minneapolis yesterday as to how he escaped from the quarantined vessel by swimming to another ship. In vestigation showed that Weaver's name was not among the list of passengers, and that his story was of the Eli Perkins order. ----ADLAI'S AGE OF PROSPERITY.

An Old-Time Business Man Makes a Comparison Which Shows Astonishing Results.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Sept. 9 .- The Journal correspondent, in search of the true history of the "golden age of American prosperity." referred to by "Gen." A. E. Stevenson, called on Hon. A. F. Shirts, of this city, and inquired if he possessed any information concerning that period of prosperity. Mr. Shirts, in 1857, was engaged in the mercantile business at Cartersburg. said he, "are my books, showing many transactions, of which this one is a fair sample:

JULY, 1857. Mrs. William Maddox. Cr. Dr. By 1 dozen chickens......$1.25 By 20 doz. eggs, at 3 cents per doz ....

To 9 yds. calico at 12½ cents...... To 9 yds. lawn at 12½ cents..... To 8 hs of sugar, at 121 cents per th 1.00

Balance due merchant.....$1:41 "Now, that was in the hey-day of Stevenson's golden age. The record of that transaction, at the current prices to-day, would show the following result:

AUGUST, 1892. Mrs. William Maddox. Cr. Dr. By 1 doz. chickens......$4.00 By 20 doz, eggs, at 14 cents per doz... 2.80

To 9 yds. calico at 5 cents yeryd ..... To 9 yds. lawn at 5 cents per yd ..... To 8 ibs of sugar at 5 cents per ib ....

Difference in favor of Mrs. Maddox .. $5.50 "Just before engaging in the mercantile business I chopped eight cords of wood for a man, and when I was done he gave me an order on a store for the $2 that was due me. for this order I got eight yards of calico, or at the rate of one yard of calico for each cord of wood chopped. To-day, for chopping such wood, a man gets $1 a cord, or $8 for the eight cords, for which he could get 160 yards of better calico for the same work that eight vards cost meat that time. I knew a farmer who sold twenty bushels of wheat for 40 cents a bushel, making a total of $8. Of this he paid $6 for a barrel of salt. To-day he can get 70 cents per bushel for his wheat—a total of $14—he can get a better barrel of sait for $1, and have $13 left. making a difference in favor of the farmer. on twenty bushels of wheat, of $6; difference on one barrel of sait, in favor of farmer, $5; total difference in favor of the farmer in this transaction, $11, on a transaction involving only $14.'

Losses by Fire.

QUEBEC, Sept. 9 .- The little village of Hedleyille, a suburb of Quebec, and separated from it by the river St. Charles, was of existence this evening by fire. About one hundred were destroyed and from five hundred to six hundred people left homeless. The loss is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000, not onetenth of which was covered by insurance, owing to the people being poor.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.-Since midnight this (Saturday) morning the great rag warehouse of Joseph Joseph, on Harrison avenue, in the far West End, has been destroyed by fire. Loss, $150,000. Fire is communicating to Burnett's furniture factory adjoining, and it is believed it cannot be saved.

COLORADO CITY, Col., Sept. 9 .- The Colorado City glass-works were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss, $35,000.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

At Memphis, Tenn., last night, Hal Wright, & switchman, shot and seriously wounded Julia Childress, his colored paramour, and then blew out his own brains. The National Association of Stationary Engineers, in session at Atlanta, Ga., has elected C. W. Naylor, of Illinois, president; J. D. Lynch, of Pennsylvania, vice-president; W. H. Cromseley, of New Jersey, secretary, and Mr. Hollings-Frank Garvin, a newspaper artist, aged twen-ty-three years, shot his wife Cora through the heart yesterday at their home in Allegheny, Pa. The couple were married last Tuesday, and the cause of the deed is supposed to have been insane jealousy. Mrs. Garvin was twenty years of age and very pretty. The New York Catholic News says the Pope has appointed Archbishop Satolli apostolic delegate to the United States. He will leave Rome for this country very shortly, where he will remain a year. He will be accompanied by Mgr. O'Connell, rector of the American College. They will visit all the dioceses in this country and obtain statistics as to the growth and present condition of the faith. The Reading's Dissattsfied Employes. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—The committee of employes of the Reading railroad, representing the engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and telegraph operators, called on President Mc-Leod, at the Fourth-street office of the company, to-day. The committee numbered twenty-four, headed by engineer Clapp, who is an employe of the Jersey Central road. They were shown into the directors' room, where Mr. Mc-Leod, General Manager Sweigard and Director George DeB. Keim met them. The conference lasted for over an hour and a half. An extra session of the committee followed, after which Mr. Clapp announced practically that the conference with McLeod was not satisfactory, and that there would be another and probably a final one on Monday. Letter-Boxes in Rural Communities. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. - Postmaster-general Wanamaker to-day issued his expected order deputizing the postmasters of free-delivery cities, towns and rural communities to put up letter boxes, on the request of citizens, for the collection and delivery of mail at house doors. The order, it is said, affects nearly three million residences to which the free delivery service is already extended, and it is regarded by postal experts as the most important departure in the free delivery of mails since the beginning of the system under Postmaster-general Blair.

The Indiana Record.

Indiana is becoming more and more a manufacturing State. The discovery of natural gas has built up new towns, and turned country villages into thriving cities. The whole aspect of things has been changed, and the prosperity of the State has been vastly increased. That the workingman has shared in this prosperity is proved by Statistician Peelle's report, If any Democrat can show that the average workingman in Indiana was able to live well and save, if he chose, $117 a year in the "good old days" of the Walker tariff, and when "red dog" and "bull pup" money was in circulation, now is the time for him to speak and cast a ray of sunshine over the dark pathway of his party.
